VOLUME LXIV., NUMBER 36. REDWOOD CITY, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1924. ESTABLISHED 1859

TWO BRIDGES ARE NOW PLANNED TO SPAN SAN FRANCISCO BAY

REPORTS INDICATE THAT WEBB BRIDGE IS ALSO TO BE CONSTRUCTED

That this section is in an era of bay bridging schemes would appear from the report this week that the capital necessary for the construction of the Webb bridge at San Mateo had been secured. This report, coming upon the heels of the announcement that the Dumbarton bridge would soon be under way, would make it appear that within a short time San Mateo county may be linked with Alameda county by two transbay bridges.

It has been rumored from the inception of the plan of the Webb bridge, that the affair was to be financed by a railroad which would make the bridge its way of entry into San Francisco. Whether or not this report is well grounded has not been announced, but if current reports can be relied upon it is not at all unlikely that another railroad may run its right of way through this county if the bridge is completed.

Frank E. Webb, New York construction engineer, head of the San Francisco Memorial Bridge Corporation, informed Secretary of War Weeks that the necessary funds for the construction of the bridge have been raised, according to reports from Washington, and that everything was in readiness for actual work to proceed.

Eastern capital is to finance the building of the proposed bridge. The proposed bridge will be four miles long and is designed primarily to handle vehicular traffic. As long ago as October, 1922, plans for the construction of a bridge were considered by the Three Cities Chamber of Commerce.

The organization invited Webb to consider the feasibility of the project, and, after an exhaustive investigation, he approved it. Organization of the San Francisco Memorial Bridge Corporation followed. Webb announced that the Keystone Construction Company of Philadelphia, and Frank G. Brown, construction engineer of New York, were associated with him in the enterprise.

After obtaining a franchise from San Mateo county Webb and his associates succeeded in convincing the War Department of the feasibility of the bridge, and obtained from the Secretary of War the necessary permit for construction.

Under the terms of the contract Webb and his associates will have control of the bridge for a period of thirty years. It is to be operated on the toll plan. When in San Francisco last August, Webb said that the Terry & Tench Company of New York, builders of the Bear Mountain-Hudson river bridge and other notable structures in the East, were under contract to build the bridge across San Francisco bay.

Meanwhile the preliminary work on the Dumbarton span is nearing completion and according to John L. Harrington, engineer in charge, actual operations will be under way this summer. The Dumbarton span will be considerably shorter than the one to the north, being only about a mile in length. The cost will also be proportionately less.

CHAS G. BONTE DIES IN CHICO

Chas. G. Bonte passed away in Chico, Sunday. The deceased was a son of the late Dr. J. H. C. Bonte and resided in Redwood City as a boy.

He came to Redwood City in the early 70s when his father was pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal church. The family remained until 1878 when Dr. Bonte was called to the church at Berkeley. He later became secretary of the faculty at the University of California, which position he held until his death.

L'OMBRA THE NEXT IN LYCEUM COURSE

The next big feature of the Lyceum course being given this winter at Sequoia Union High School will be "L'Ombra," a comic opera, by Frederick Von Flotow, the composer of "Martha." This will be presented on Monday evening, Dec. 8 at 8:15 o'clock.

The plot of this opera is unique and different from current opera themes. The cast includes the following: Stella Norelli Lamout, lyric Coloratura Soprano, as Vespinia; Luzarine France, Lyric Soprano, as Gina; Obrad Djurin, tenor, as Fabrizion; Carl Formes, Baritone, as Dr. Mironêt; with Arthur Lydell as pianist Director.

The conductor of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, Isaac Van Grove, coached this production and arranged the musical scores, and the staging has been arranged by Lester Luther, head of the dramatic department of the Chicago Musical College. The costuming is very elaborate, and a real treat is assured all those who see this number.

Miss Norelli-Lamont, taking the part of Vespina, together with Forrest Lamont, the well known Chicago Grand Opera star, sang the leading roles of this opera in Europe and the other members of the cast are equally well known in opera circles. Miss Lamont made her operatic debut at Genoa, Italy, in Bellim's difficult opera, "I Puritain." This, the forerunner of other successes, brought her before the critical Italian public in many of the principal cities of the country. Her greatest triumphs were made in such operas as "Lucia," "Rigoletto," Barber of Saville," and other of that type. Her career as a singer has covered every field of the art and whether in recital or opera she has been acclaimed as highly sucessful by critics both here and broad.

The people of the community can not afford to miss this production which promises to be the finest of the series. Rember that the season ticket for the Lyceum course costs only $2.00, and admits you to four numbers. Single admissions to "L'Ombra" are $1.00.

"CALIFORNIA'S PIONEERS" KIWANIS CLUB SUBJECT

The Redwood City Kiwanis Club had as the subject of a talk at the regular weekly meeting the subject of the pioneers of California. Roy W. Cloud was the speaker and entertained the members of the club with tales of the early days in California. The speaker told of the life and tragic death of David Broadrick of the activities and murder of James King of William, and of Thomas Starr King.

The club had as its guest W. C. Stevenson, chief engineer of the local plant of the Pacific Portland Cement Co., who told briefly of the work that is being done at that plant.

A committee of prominent business men of Palo Alto was present, and plans are being made for the formation of a Kiwanis Club at that place. The Redwood City Club will act as sponsor to the new club when it is formed.

The meeting Tuesday was under the chairmanship of Dr. Norman MceKnzie. A new member, Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin, was admitted to the club at this meeting.

Owing to the death of one of our members, Miss Helen Andrews, the annual luncheon and Jinx, which was to have been held December 4, has been indefinitely postponed.

San Mateo High Forfeits Game

The San Mateo High School football team which would probably have been the champion of Northern California and perhaps of the state was deprived of this honor by a very unfortunate circumstance. After winning the leadership in the league and while preparing to play Berkeley today for the Northern championship, charges were made that Ted Anderson, star fullback of the aggregation, was over twenty-one years of age. This is in violation of the high school rules. Both the boy and his family protested that he had not yet reached his majority, but a navy enlistment was produced that indicated that he was of legal age. Mr. Glascock, principal of the school, then began an investigation and becoming convinced that there was real foundation for the charge of over age, forfeited the game and called off the Saturday contest.

Mr. Glascock is to be congratulated upon the stand he took in the matter, as it will help to keep athletics on the plane which they should occupy.

Sequoia Plans Three Short Plays

On Thursday evening, December 11th, the Dramatic Class at Sequoia will present a group of one-act plays, upon which they have been working for some time. Practically all the rehearsing on these plays has been done during the class time and the members of the cast are working hard to assure a finished production.

The first play, "The Wonder Hut" is a delightful fantasy, featuring the love affair of Harlequin and Columbine. Through the aid of magic charms carried in the pack of the peddler, Punchinello, their love desires seem about to be consummated when—but you will have to see the play to find out what happens. Jack Wilson who carried off the honors in "The Charm School," last year, is playing the part of Harlequin, while Melba Leigh makes an adorable Columbine.

Burton Cairns is clever as Pierrot who does not know whom to love; Irma Williams plays Margot, companion to Columbine; Engene Goldrup has the difficult part of Punchinello, the old peddler. Miss Boyle, who is coaching the plays, is arranging special lighting and costuming for the play which will make it very beautiful to see.

The second play, "The Pot Boiler" is ridiculously funny exposition of what might happen during the rehearsal of a play if the author were allowed to do all the directing the trials of a director as well as the trials of the actors are very well portrayed here. The cast follows:

M. Thomas Pinikles Sad, (playwright ..... John Shortridge
Mr. Wouldby (who wants to be a playwright) ..... John Weeden
Miss Ivory (heroine) Marjorie Klee
Mrs. Pencil (the vamp) .....
..... Gladys Palmer
Mr. Ruler (the hero) Burton Cairns
Mr. Inkwell (the villian) .....
..... Leonard Brown
Mr. Ivory (father of heroine) ....
..... Jack Wilson

"Sham," the third play is a story of how a burglar outwits and shames the owners of the house he is robbing. Burton Cairns will have the lead in this play.

Admission for the evening's entertainment will be twenty-five cents. The class is not aiming to make money from the venture, but desires to put the plays on as artistically as possible, charging just enough to pay expenses.

TWO ENTERTAINMENTS ENJOYED THIS WEEK

Redwood City was treated to two very splendid attractions this week. Tuesday night Tony Sarg and his Marionettes gave "Treasure Island" in the High School Auditorium. The parts were all well taken, and so real were the characters that the audience was amazed at the size of the six foot man who came on the stage with the figures at the close. He looked like a twenty-foot giant.

On Wednesday night Professor Walter Richards gave a musical program in the Congregational church. The full choir rendered several fine selections and showed the results of faithful training. Miss Louise K. Brown and Mr. Gustave Fonandern gave wonderfully well rendered Solos. Mrs. Wilbur Doxsee and Miss Dorothy Bresse were especially good in their duets and in the quartette with Mr. Doxsee and Fred Taylor. Mr. Clair Gaylord on the clarionet and Mr. M. S. Tinker on the violin, gave instrumental numbers that were greatly enjoyed. Professor Richards presided at the organ and his selections were most enjoyable.

It is to be hoped that further programs of this kind will be given.

STOLEN CAR LEADS YOUNG BOY TO JAIL

The attaches of Sheriff McGoyern's stone house had a surplus of weeping Monday and Tuesday. A fourteen-year-old boy was brought from the north end for stealing and running a Ford. He was taken to the Juvenile Detenion home, but it was impossible to keep him there, so he was transferred to the jail. He immediately began to cry and although every effort was made to quiet him he howled all day and all night and most of the next day, when it was found necessary to take him home to quiet him.

The poor litle chap was hysterical and wanted his mother. It's a pretty safe bet that he will never bother anyone's Ford again.

ALL OFFICERS RE-ELECTED BY LOCAL FIREMEN

The annual election of officers of the Redwood City Fire Department held last Tuesday evening resulted in the re-election of all the present officers. Mark E. Ryan was elected for the seventh consecutive time to the position of fire chief. Clarence Choat was elected assistant chief for the fourth time and Pete Laracou was elected second assistant for the third time. The record in time of office holding within the department goes to A. S. Ligouri, who was elected secretary for the 23rd time. Ligouri has served as secretary since the days of the No. 1 hose company. He was also secretary of the affiliation of firechiefs at the time when Redwood City had several hand companies.

Metramora Tribe of Redmen elected officers last Monday evening. Louis Winkler was chosen Sachem for the coming year. Other officers elected were: William Stott, senior sagamore; Joseph Alves, junior sagamore; E. T. Randolph, prophet; Dave Stott, trustee. They will be installed January 2.

RUM RUNNERS TORTURE GUARD WHO SELLS THEIR CACHED LIQUOR

BOOZE LANDED ON COAST SOLD; RETURNED AT POINT OF PISTOL

Savoring strongly of the days of the Inquesition, come reports from Pescadero of the activities of rum runners, who seem to have thrown that otherwise peaceful little seaside town into furor. The reports are of the double crossing of rum runners by one of the guards they had set to watch the cache, and of the trial by ordeal given the man by his companions.

According to advices received from Pescadero Victor Dias, said to have been employed by the rum runners to guard their liquor cache, buried in the sands of Pescadero point, was captured by his confederates Tuesday night and taken to a lonely spot where he was hanged by his thumbs. Under torture, Dias is reported to have disclosed to whom he disposed of the liquor. About $5,000 worth of bootleg liquor is said to have been sold by the supposed guard. Six persons are said to have been the purchasers.

Dias is said to have implicated Deputy Constable Manual Baptist, in whose house a quantity of liquor was declared to have been recovered by the rum runners Wednesday night.

Upon learning to whom the cached liquors had been sold, the rumrunners are reported to have gone to the houses of the purchasers and at the point of a gun, searched the houses and recaptured the illicit liquor. Dias who lives in a small hut on Pigeon Point disappeared immediately after his release by the rumrunners, and can not be located. A warrant is now out for his arrest.

Constable Morris of Pescadero has made the following statement in regard to the affair:

"By a prearranged plot Constable Baptist and others Tuesday afternoon visited the liquor cache guarded by Dias and under his direction hauled off several truck loads of cased whiskey and raw alcohol which they sold about Pescadero. They were later to split the profits with Dias.

"Tuesday night, rum runners from San Francisco, learning they had been hijacked by one of their members, captured Dias and hanged him by his thumbs until he gave them the names ofthose who had bought the stolen liquor.

"Wednesday night, the rum runners returned to Pescadero, armed, and made a house to house search, securing all but four cases of the missing liquor, which they loaded on trucks. Seven houses were searched at the point of guns, including the home of Constable Babtist, where they are said to have recaptured nineteen cases of whisky. They then loaded the remainder of their $20,000 cache and drove away.

"My first move is to learn from Constable Babtist why I was not told of the raids and why he took the whisky and then returned it to the rum runners."

REDWOOD-MENLO MEET DECEMBER 14

The Fighting Irish and the Menlo Bull Dogs will match their forces on the field of the William Warren school on Sunday, December 14. The Irish, who are to uphold the reputation of Redwood City are a well-trained team of pigskin kickers, under the management of Al Bullivant. The Bull Dogs, who to judge from appearances might be a little Irish themselves, come of a scrappy little town, and under the management of Coach Kelly, are planning on showing the local lads how to play ball.

This will be the third annual game between the two teams, the game of two years ago having gone to the Bull Dags by a score of 25 to 0. Last Year's was a tie of 6 to 6. The present game will decide the supremacy of the two teams.

The game has been postponed for a week, having been scheduled for tomorrow.

The line-up of the two teams is as follows:

Menlo Park—Carroll Weeden, H. Morey, Clothier and Healy, ends; De Knight and Mettler, tackles; B. Feeley, Angus, F. Clothier and Miler, guards. J. Weeden, center; Wong, Larracou, J. Walsh, J. Morey, Halfs; P. Walsh and J. Kelley, quarters; Mettler, full back.

SILVER WEDDING CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Pipkin celebrated their silver wedding last Sunday. The Pipkins were married by Rev. F. H. Maar, twenty-five years ago and have resided here ever since. For many years Mr. Pipkin has been employed at the Sequoia Union High School, and is known by every former student of that institution. Mrs. Pipkin has been very active in church work during her residence here and has also taken part in other activities of the community. They have one daughter, Miss Lillian, who is a student at Sequoia.

A number of friends helped Mr. and Mrs. Pipknn celebrate the happy event and all of their friends wish them at least twenty-five more happy and prosperous years.

A DAUGHTER FOR HIS BIRTHDAY

Thursday was a birthday for John Ryan of this city, and his friends are congratulating him upon the present he received. In fact, it was two birthdays, for it was also the first and original birthday of his little daughter, born that day at the Mills Memorial hospital in San Mateo. The little stranger is the third in the home of the Ryans. Mrs. Ryan is the daughter of Niels Jachumson of this city.

DIES AT DECOTO

Henry Burner who was well known in Redwood City passed away at the Masonic Home, Decoto, last Friday and was buried in the family plot, Oakland. Mr. Burner was a most lovable old gentleman, and will be missed at the Home.

He traveled far in Masonry and belonged to many of its different branches. For many years he was connected with the Hueter Paint Company of San Francisco, and held a responsible position with the firm until he retired.

He spent most of his vacaiton periods with Asa or Guy Hull and always considered their place a second home. He was an artist of no small ability and always had his easel and numerous paintings in his room. He was a man who grew old gracefully; he retained his interest in people and things until the end of the journey. When the end came he was glad to go home.

Tracy — Contract let for Banta-Carboni lift canal system, for $122,000.

A VALUABLE RELIC

Wilfred Steele of San Francisco and Rufus Steele of Pigeon Point spent Sunday and Monday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Cloud.

Wilfred Steele gave Mr. Cloud a commission which belonged to his uncle, General Fred Steele. It is General Steele's appointment as a Lietenant Colonel of the Third Infantry and is signed by Abraham Lincoln. The commission is in a fine state of repair, is dated Aug. 26, 1863 and also bears the signature of E. M. Stanton, secretary of war.

It is interesting to note that at the time the commission was issued General Steele was P. P. Chamberlain's commanding officer. He was a West Point graduate and before the close of the Civil war became a Major General. After the close of the war he came to California and died at San Mateo in 1872.

THE AMALGAMATION COMMITTEE

A committee was recently appointed to make a careful study of matters pertaining to the annexation of San Mateo county to San Francisco. A self-appointed few selected themselves as officers of the movement and after due consideration appointed a representative citizen from each community of the county to carefully go into every detail and look after the interests of his section.

Mr. M. A. Hope was selected to represent Redwood City. Personally we have no quarrel with the annexationists. We are willing to be shown. Furthermore, we have no great objection to Mr. Hope as a member of the committee. We feel, however, that he does not in any way represent Redwood City. Mr. Hope did reside here for a few months, but since coming to San Mateo county he has made his home in San Mateo. He has most of his associations there. It is true that he is head of the local branch of a big San Francisco corporation, but his duties are not confined to the local plant. Mr Hope is a fine upstanding young man, but he in no way represents Redwood City or Redwood City's ideas so far as annexation or amalgamation are concerned.

We feel that someone who really resides in Redwood City and knows the problems of this community, one who has the welfare of the section at heart, should be the one to represent us. The committee should not be composed exclusively of annexationists. We realize that few people in this section are deeply interested in the matter, but the appointing powers might, if they looked hard enough, find someone who lives in Redwood City to serve as Redwood City's representative on the committee.

A CHANGING TOWN

THE business section of Redwood City is rapidly undergoing a change. A few years ago all of the commericial interests were clustered within a block of the corner of Broadway and Main streets. In former times we journeyed only a few blocks to call on every merchant in town.

When the post office was moved to its present location we felt that it was going clear out to the edge of things. It was an unheard of place for a post office. But business has not only grown that far from Main street, but it has gone out beyond the track and past the highway as well.

This week we were surprised to find that the journey out Main street towards the Five Points is just as pronounced as is the movement out Broadway. New stores have sprung up in nearly every block. A few months ago there was a garage and a hardware store in that section—now there are groceries, fruit stores, restaurants and this week a drug store has been added to the accumulation.

Not only are these changes noticeable but the class of improvements is worthy of consideration. Also the prices of realty have increased prodiguously. Property that last year was worth $100 a front foot, now brings from $300 to $500. The town is increasing in numbers, as it has never increased before.

Redwood City seems to be on the beginning of an era of great advancement, of great prosperity. The good time has been a long time coming, but it's on its way.

LEARNED ROGUES

AN investigation recently conducted by the newly appointed warden of San Quentin brought to light the fact that nineteen of the convicts of that institution have high degrees from colleges throughout the world. Harvard, Columbia, Margate, Moscow and other leading universities of the world are represented as well as religious colleges and universities. The discovery comes as a surprise to many who consider a good education a guarantee of character and a university diploma the only requisite to respectability. Something, however, is lacking. Education alone will not take the place of character, and the intellectual side of man is only one side of that ancient triangle of which all sides must be equal to produce harmony.

Materialism, by over developing the fact side of life and dwarfing the fancy can only lead to aberration.. Nor will educational training alone produce happiness. Nature consists in harmony and proportion, when the harmony is disturbed, the natural forces react in retribution. Darwin is said to have lamented that he had not spent a greater portion of his life in the consideration of poetry. The great scientist by studying the facts in life to the exclusion of its fancies, lost something in life which he later realized. Similar cases are numerous. When a flower is considered as so much fibrin, so much chloraphal, so much celulous, and the harmony of its arrangement is forgotten, the lesson of creation is missed, and no amount of classification and tabulation will retrive the blunder.

THE THOUGHT THAT WORKS

THAT the wish is father to the thought has been so often repeated that it has become hackneyed and dog-eared by use But the fact that the thought itself might be father to the fact has often escaped observation. Being told that you are looking well, may not change your physical condition, but if it makes you more conscious of your well-being and less so of your shortcomings, the effect is the same.

As with individuals, so with communities. A town in which the residents take pride is always worthy of that pride, and a boost for even a poor town will make it the more worthy of boosting. Confidence in the town in which we live will never be misplaced, for by our own confidence the town is improved.

SEQUOIA THEATRE HAS NEW ORGANIST

The position at the console of the Sequoia Theatre, which has been occupied by Miss Clarissa Dodge since the beginning of the theatre here about eight years ago, will be occupied from now on by Edward S. Moore. Miss Dodge has been transferred to the Stanford Theatre of Palo Alto, another of the Arkush show houses.

The new organist comes to Redwood City from Oakland, where he has been delighting audiences of the Chimes Theatre for the past eighteen months. Moore has had a thorough musical education, and has studied the art of the muses under such noted musicians as Clarence Reynolds, municipal organist of Denver, Colorado, and Henry Foan of Detroit, Michigan. His ability at expression is not limited to any one class of music as he can render a jazz tune or a classical selection with equal regard to form.

W. J. O'Brien, manager of the Sequoia Theatre, has always given the people of Redwood City the best obtainable in every line, and his choice of an organist would indicate that he has not slackened a bit in his resolve. The music of Mr. Moore is being enjoyed by the audiences at the Sequoia Theatre.

"THE CITY THAT NEVER SLEEPS"—WHERE IS IT.

At the Sequoia Theatre, of course. It's James Cruze's newest Paramount production and features Ricardo Cortez, Louise Dresser, Kathlyn Williams and Virginia Lee Corbin. The story is by Leroy Scott. Walter Woods and Anthony Coldewey wrote the scenario.

Which is "the city that never sleep?" New York, naturally. New York, the wonder-city of the world, what a background for a motion picture plot! And what a story this is.

Directed by the man who made "The Covered Wagon," "Merton," etc., "The City That Never Sleeps" is an appalling drama of love and intrigue which tugs at the heart strings.

Miss Dresser has the part of "Mother O'Day," the title role of Scott's McCall Magazine serial. After her husband has been killed in his saloon in defense of a young girl, Mother O'Day's one care in the proper up-bringing of her baby daughter. A Bowery cafe is anything but a proper schoolroom for one so young. She must get the child away. How? Where? That was the question.

Mother O'Day's great sacrifice for her daughter's future is one of the finest things yet shown on the screen at any theatre. The many scenes leading up to the final discovery that the girl, presumably left in safe hands, has become one of the highest of the high steppers in New York's 'bright light' district, constitute one of the most delightfully human productions seen in Sequoia Theatre in many a day.

How does Mother O'Day save her daughter from herself—or does she?

The answer's in the picture which appears here, Monday and Tuesday December 8 and 9. First shows starts each evening at 7:15.

PLAYS ENGLISH "DANDY" IN "GARDEN OF WEEDS"

It looks like William Austin was predestined to play eccentric English characters on the screen.

Austin is always associated with the portrayal of English "dandies" on the screen. He comes by the English honestly, but the eccentricity has been developed. He was born Georgetown, British Guiana, and educated in England.

Nature gave Austin six feet and an inch of leanness, with a long face and drooping eyelids, always assocated with English types.

So when he came to America to seek his fame and fortune on the stage, enterprising producers at once cast him in English roles, and he has stayed there all his theatrical life.

His latest characterization is in "the Garden of Weeds," the Betty Compson starring production which James Cruze produced for Paramount. He appears with Rockliffe Fellowes, Warner Baxter, Charles Ogle and Al St. John, the featured players, among others.

But in spite of his long association with English characters, and particularly comic English characters, Austin has a deep-set ambition.

"Just once," he says, "I'd like to play a really serious part."

"The Garden of Weeds," adapted from the Broadway stage play of the same name and with an A-1 cast playing in support of the principals, is due at the Sequoia Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 10 and 11.

Walnut Tree Bears Twice

That the climate of Redwood City is conducive to growth and development has always been conceded, even by residents of our neighboring towns, who would be the last to concede such a point if it were not undeniable. But just how prolific Redwood City's climate really is has never been fully realized before. Of course, the hen laying two eggs a day has been produced here, and a duck which builds her nest in trees is a well-known local product, but now comes the tree with two crops of nuts a year. To be sure any tree is a nut to produce another crop when it might be resting, but this particular tree is a walnut. It belongs to John Capella, and is growing on his place at 728 Warren street.

This summer the walnut tree, like the proverbial sheep, produced three bags full, and then like most trees shed its leaves, apparently began its winter rest. Not so, however, for a few weeks ago new catkins bloomed out and now six walnuts, each the size of a marble, are showing on the tree. The owner believes that this is the first walnut tree to produce two crops in a year, and his friends agree with him .If the frost does not become too severe within the next few weeks, Capella will have matured walnuts in the middle of winter. Truly a wonderful climate this.

SPRAYING AND PRUNING IS NECESSARY

County Horticultural Commissioner A. W. Tate this week filed his monthly report concerning conditions in this county, with the board of supervisors. The commissioner's report contains some valuable suggestions concerning the spraying and pruning of deciduous trees. The report reads in part as follows:

Numerous inquiries having been received by this office regarding the proper time to prune trees and shrubs of various kinds, I wish to advise that all deciduous trees or shrubs may be pruned at any time from now until spring and it is not necessary to wait until the leaves fall, although some growers prefer to wait as it is easier to see to make the proper cuts when the leaves are off. On the other hand, if the pruning is done now, spraying can be done much more advantageously. A possible exception may be made in the case of tender plants which are best left until danger of severe frost is passed.

Spraying for the control of black scale should be completed this month as the scale is harder to kill as it gets older. Peach and almond trees should be sprayed as soon as the leaves fall for the control of peach blight, a serious trouble, which, some seasons, in certain sections, ruins the entire crop and always kills many of the smaller and tender twigs. For the control of this disease, and as a help toward the prevention of curl leaf, the use of Bordeaux mixture is recommended at the 4-4-50 strength. I adivse the use of the home-made Bordeaux if the user knows how to make it but the commercially prepared may be used if desired.

The late Dr. J. C. Whitten of the Univeritsy of California advocated white washing the entire tree after Bordeaux had been applied as he claimed the trees, after this treatment, went through the winter in better condition, withstanding the effects of frost and being less susceptible to sunburn.

Spraying followed by rain within twenty-four hours should be repeated and all operations should be done thoroughly.

As a quarantine will go into effect next season against bulbs grown in Holland, dealers are getting in a supply for future needs so by far the greater part of our inspections this month have been bulb shipments. We have inspected 275 shipments of 315,215 plants and packages from California points, 59 shipments from outside the state of 230,229 packages. Of these approximately 500,000 were bulbs. Two thousand bulbs were treated for insect pests before delivery, 1,008 bulbs and plants were destroyed, and 50 citrus trees were returned to the shipper.

FORD AIRFIELD OPENED IN DETROIT

W. H. Goodwin, branch manager of the Ford Motor Company in San Francisco, received the news yesterday that a new airplane landing field, the donation of Henry and Edsel Ford, which was recently completed at Dearborn, Michigan, will be known as "Ford Airport," according to announcement just made.

"The donation is purely in the interest of commercial aviation, for it is understood there is no intention on the part of the Ford Motor Company to go into the airplane business, other than to watch its development."

All pilots will be welcome at the field and it is large enough to take care of the largest types of ships. It also is expected that the field will be the terminal for airplane companies now being formed to operate between Detroit and other large cities. Gasoline, oil, and before long a stock of parts, will be available for visiting fliers.

The field has two 300-foot runways, one 3,700 feet and the other 3,400 feet long, both in the direction of prevailing winds. More than twenty miles of draining tile was laid for quick drainage in wet weather in order that the field might be suitable for year-round operation.

In the center of the field the name "FORD" appears in letters 200 feet high, made of white crushed Stone. This is visible from an altitude of 10,000 feet. When conditions warrant, arrangements will be made for illuminating the field at night.

There is an ample hanger and in the same building airplane manufacturing operations are being carried on by the Stout Metal Airplane Company and Aircraft Development Company.

Thirty Years Ago

With the holiday season approaching, and with so many changes taking place in this community our mind travels back to a period when things were different here in Redwood City. Not only were business conditions different, but social affairs were on a different plane. There were no movies to attend. Wireless was undreamed and the few shows that came to the old Germania hall brought out crowded houses.

The young folks, however, had many functions at homes and while the quilting party was not an institution, gatherings at the different homes were as common as garages are now-a-days. The social club was the organization that blossomed and brought forth its pleasures in all seasons.

The principal organization of this kind that flourished here was the Nyayah Club. It was organized by Guy Hull, Corni Christ, Joe Cloud, Morris Cooper, Frank Wentworth, Will Glennon, Will Lovie, Asa Hull, John Calhoun and different other young men of their age.

It contained its existence for a number of years and then went the way of all such aggregations. But it left its memories, and in the mind of many of the residents of the town are the thoughts of the happy days back when the Nyayah Club had one of its functions.

UNITED STATES LAUNDRY OPENS PENINSULA OFFICE

A few years ago the United States Laundry extended their business to the Peninsula, operating with one small route. Owing to the rapid growth of the Peninsula they are today operating seven large routes.

The management of this company has considered it necessary, in order to handle efficiently the increased volume of business, to erect a central station to take care of all the routes, which extend as far as Palo Alto.

The new building, which has just been completed, is located on the Highway at Harrison avenue, Beresford. No effort has been spared to make it a beauty spot and the result has been all that could be desired, and is in accordance with the class of building desired by our community.

Two branch offices will also be maintained, in addition to the central office, for the accomodation of the patrons one in Burlingame and the other in Redwood City.

The United States Laundry has always had the interest of the Peninsula at heart and has given cooperation and support to every problem facing them especially for the betterment of the community. Many of the employees and members of the firm ars located in Burlingame and Redwood City and vicinity, among them, F. J. Huebsch, president, who has made Burlingame his permanent home.

BOARD CONSIDERS WATER SUPPLY TO ADJACENT SUBDIVISIONS

The question of the advisability of supplying water to the various subdivisions being put on the market around Redwood City was discussed at some length before the board of trustees at their regular monthly meeting last Monday night. The matter was brought before the board in the application of Lyon & Hoag, San Francisco realty firm, for water to supply the Belle Britton tract which they are subdividing.

Lyon & Hoag were represented by A. Brotherton of Los Altos, who stated that the realty firm intend to lay the mains and wish to connect with the Redwood City system. The matter of annexing the tract to Redwood City, and thus bringing it within the city limits, was discussed, but Brotherton stated that the firm would rather not have the tract annexed.

Whether the town will consent to supply water and fire protection without its being added to the corporate town of Redwood City will be decided by a committee consisting of Trustee Monteith, City Engineer Dimmitt, City Attorney Albert Mansfield and Trustee George McNulty. This committee will confer with the owners of the tract, and make a report to the board.

The matter of parking on the business streets of the town was also discussed at the meeting of the board of trustees, and it was decided to extend the limited parking district to the block north of Broadway on Main street. This will permit cars to stand on this block for only one hour at a time.

A petition was received by the board, signed by a number of residents of Welesley Park and Redwood Highlands, protesting against the proposal to extend Duane street to meet Oakdale avenue in Wellesley Park. The objection is not to the proposed improvement, but to the proposed method of financing it. It had been proposed that the extension be made by a district assessment, affecting the property which will be benefited by the improvement. The signers of the petition desire to have the work done by the town as a whole. The matter was set for hearing at the next regular meeting of the board which will be on the 15th of this month.

A request was made for more lights in California Square. Arthur Teague appeared and made the request to the board. The majority of the residents of the district desire the lights according to Teague. The matter was referred to Chief of Police Collins, who will investigate and report at the next meeting.

A letter was received from Mrs. Walter S. King stating that she had recently completed a house in Redwood City. In applying for a building permit, she stated, she had made a mistake and had included the cost of the lot in the cost of the house. She asked that her assessment be reduced to the amount of the error. The clerk was instructed to write Mrs. King that the matter should have been brought to the attention of the board of equalization. It was not within the power of the board to change the assessment at this time.

Cleaning Without Odor by the
F. Thomas Process
Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.
With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.
Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rosenfield, proprietor of the Menlo Peony Gardens, entertained a number of friends at the gardens on Santa Cruz avenue last Saturday evening, the occasion being the completion of the harvest of the big crop of tomatoes and strawberries. Dancing, cardplaying and social converse were indulged in and enjoyed until midnight when a tempting supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grounse, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Loone, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borges, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Lewis.

C. Francis Quinn, the popular good looking young railroad man of Palo Alto, is relieving Mr. Veverka, the local station agent this week. Veverka is away on a short business trip.

Several flocks of wild pigeons have been seen in this locality during the week. The old settlers consider a flight of pigeons at this season a sure harbinger of a rainy season. All signs have failed thus far. Let it be hoped that some power will let the flood gates of heaven open so that the parched earth will receive a thorough soaking.

The $660,000 estate of the late Harry Holbrook was distributed in the Superior court of San Francisco this week. Among the numerous legatees was Andre Yanoff, formerly of Menlo Park, who was bequeathed the sum of $6000, by the deceased capitalist. He was Holbrook's valet for a number of years. Many years ago Yanoff acted in a similar capacity for the late Charles N. Felton, who left him in his will the sum of $5000, for faithful service. While in the employ of Senator Felton, Yanoff realized big profits from investments in stocks from information given him by his employer. Yanoff is considered wealthy. He is an intelligent and a bright man. His father was a captain in the U. S. Army and he also served in the U. S. Navy. Some years ago he applied in Superior court at Redwood City to become a citizen of this country. He answered all the questions put to him by the U. S. examiner promptly, but the latter on investigation of his questionaire would not admit him on account of the nationality of his mother, who he claimed belonged to the Mongol race. His father was born in Russia. Yanoff denied his Mongal blood, but the examiner was obdurate.

Arrangements for a card party to be given Tuesday, December 9, for the benefit of the Menlo Park Parent-Teacher Association are being made by Mrs. William Moore, chairman of the ways and means committee of the association. In addition to card playing there will be a program. The affair will take place in the parish house of Trinity Episcopal Church, beginning at 2 o'clock. Admission is to be 25 cents.

The Menlo Park Improvement Association will hold an important meeting on Friday evening, December 19. All members are urged to attend.

Menlo Park is shortly to enjoy a $30,000 theatre to be erected on the highway. It is to be the last word in playhouse construction and appointment. It is to have a seating capacity of 700 with balcony and orchestra pit.

Workmen began wrecking the old San Francisquito Cottage on the highway yesterday. The structure is an old land mark, having been originally erected by the late Mrs. Jane Stanford for Rev. Scott at that time pastor of the Presbyterian church. It is being razed to make room for the new lumber yard extension.

Santa Claus has already visited the Little Green Door, Fred Nessler proprieor, with his reindeers and left a full stock of handsome toys for the little boys and little girls, too. From now until Christmas the Little Green Door will be the mecca for all the young hopefuls.

Thursday evening at her beautiful home on Laurel avenue, Mrs. H. B. Doughty entertained the members of the Menlo Park Sewing Club. Late in the night delightful refreshments were served to the appreciative gathering.

A Gordon Bowles and his brother have gone to old Mexico on a motor trip. They are to return before the holidays.

E. Shoughnessy and his charming wife have taken charge of the confectionery department of the Little Green Door. Short orders and delightful sandwiches and Boston baked beans are to be a few of the new addiions to this department. Mr. Shoughnessy is from Boston, where he at one time superintended one of the largest cafes in that cultured city. He has been a resident of Menlo Park for the past year.

Father Heffernan, assistant pastor here, has been appointed an assistant at Berkeley. During his short stay here he made many friends who wish him every success in his new field of endeavor.

Last Tuesday evening the local freight warehouse was broken into and robbed. Two coils of copper wire, valued at $53 were removed. Railroad detectives are now on the trail of the culprits.

The Misses Ethel and Marcella O'Keefe were hostesses at a Bridge party and a surprise shower last Saturday afternoon given in honor of Miss Georgia Gilcrest of Halfmoon Bay, who will be a January bride. Miss Gilcrest, who is a niece of Mrs. Jas. T. O'Keefe, was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable presents, and has been the guest of honor at a number of social functions since her engagment has been annouced.

Marietta Johnson will lecture next Tuesday night, Dec. 9th, at the San Mateo High School auditorium in San Mateo at 8:15 under the auspices of the County Federation, P.-T. A. This is a splendid chance to hear this noted lecturer and as this will be her last appearance locally, all should avail themselves of this opportunity.

DEATH ENDS YEARS OF MARRIED BLISS

Henry T. Owens, a workman in the camp of the California, Tie camp at La Honda, is separated by death from his wife, with whom he had lived for 54 years. During their whole married life the couple had been separated only four days, Owens told friends as he came here on the last sad journey with the woman he had grown old with.

Mrs. Armilda Owens, the wife, passed away at the tie camp Wednesday, apparently of heart trouble. She was 71 years of age, and had been a resident of this state for 48 years, having come originally from Arkansas.

The body of the deceased was sent from here to the former home of the aged couple in Santa Rosa, where the funeral will take place. An inquest will be held here Monday. No children or other relatives are left, the aged husband being the only surviving member of the family.

Berkeley—Large new movie theatre to be built here.

Kerman—First National Bank of Kerman receives charter.

LOCAL TALENT TO SHOW IN RAVENSWOOD MINSTREL

The Redwood Minstrels, the troupe which won much fame for themselves by the performance which they gave a few weeks ago in the Pescadero Community Center, will repeat that program tonight with some variations for the Ravenswood Woman's Club. The performance will be in the Ravenswood school auditorium.

In addition to the minstrel show there will be a sale of the work of the soldiers at the Base hospital at Menlo Park for the benefit of the boys of that institution. The sale is an annual event by the Ravenswood Woman's Club and is to provide Christmas cheer for the Wounded veterans.

The Minstrel troupe is composed of young men of the Congregational church of Redwood City. They have a program of laughs from start to finish. Those taking part in the performance are:

Interlocutor, Earl Eikerenkotter; Bones, W. H. Doxsee, Clifton Woodnams; Tambos, Ralph S. Dodge, Fred Irwin. Chorus, Wesley Locker, Roy Bissell, George Greeley, Earl Higgins, Oscar Olson, Ralph Bloomquist, C. E. Gaylord, Andrew Stewart; Pianist, Fred Taylor.

The program for tonight consists of a number of high-class musical selections of the operatic type, such as "It Ain't Gona Rain No Mo," which will be artistically rendered by the well-known artist, Meloncholly Doxsee. The selections will all be of the same high class type, and the troupe will be closely examined by the interlocutor, Earl Eicherenkotter as to their past history and family affairs. The program will consist of two parts as follows:

District Attorney Addresses Supervisors on Bootleggers

Urging that the bootlegger and the gambling device peddler be purged from the county, District Attorney Swart read a letter before the board of supervisors last Monday which had been sent by him to every constable and police officer in the county. Swart's letter read in part as follows:

"Intoxicating liquor is at present being retailed largely by an irresponsible class. Persons who are not citizens, those who are criminally inclined and even those who have been driven out of other jurisdictions are engaging in this business.

"In addition to this, we have about a half a dozen places in the county which are questionable resorts. There are also a few roadside dancing resorts which cater to an undesirable element coming largely from across the county line.

"Aside from those undesirable elements, we have the slot machine and punch board. It is my impression that this class of thing carries with it more corrupting influence than any of the rest.

"Some two months ago I called the attention of the officers over the county to the fact that certain agents were going from store to store, attempting to place slot machines and punch boards. In practically every place the proprietor was told that it was all fixed with the officers. I, at that time, appealed to the officers to put an end to this. So far as I have been able to learn, this was but an argument for the sale of the device. However, it behooves the officers of the county to kill the argument and to keep it killed.

"The Wright Act has given us the duty to inforce the provisions of the Volstead Act without giving us any machinery to do the work. We are given no separate enforcement department such as is provided by the government. From my experience, private detective agencies may well be avoided as far as possible. The general public doesn't like the type of gumshoe man generally employed in liquor cases. I have generally found them dishonest in their expense accounts and the class of men that are actually engaged in the work are generally men that we would not depend upon in other lines of business.

"We have an important business to perform. We are going to perform it in a straight forward business like manner. That's what we're here for. That's what we're paid for. We believe in the good name of our county. We are going to keep it a nice place for good homes. We owe it to our children who are growing up.

"In this work we shall appreciate helpfulness from anybody and everybody but we are not going to be intimidated by self-constituted committees, either so-called good or so-called bad. We are going to do it because it's our business and we are going to do it according to the dictates of our conscience. Abraham Lincoln once said to a self-constituted committee who claimed to have some special inspiration as to how Abe should do his work, that he thought if the Lord had any inspiration to give he'd give it to the fellow who was going to do the work, and as long as we hold the positions we do, I think the Lord will look to us."

The report by Swart was given in reply to a leter from a Mrs. R. F. Lesley which had been referred to the district attorney. Mrs. Lesley complained that the gambling devices were being operated in the north end of the county. The letter particularly mentioned one place at the jupnction of this and San Francisco counties. Supervisor Hickey was authority for the statement that he was sure that gambling was not going on at any other place.

The matter of a dairy ordinance was again brought before the board by E. D. Mason of the State Department of Agriculture, who representing the dairying interests of the county, presented an ordinance which he urged the board to pass. The ordinance was drawn up by District Attorney Swart, Mason announced. The board ordered the clerk to have copies made of the proposed ordinance, so that each member of the board might have a copy. The discussion of the matter was laid over to the next meeting in order that the members might have time to study the ordinance and to consider its provisions.

The road connecting the main building at the community hospital with the tuberculosis pavilion, was accepted by the board.

The county engineer was instructed to survey a lateral from the Skyline boulevard to connect with the Hillcrest drive in the north end of the county.

E. R. Eubanks, superintendent of the county farm, reported in regard to cleaning the isolation ward at the poor farm. The place was in bad condition, he stated, owing to the fact that the building was not equipped with either running water or toilets. Eubanks suggesting moving the building and improving its equipment. Nothing, however, was done in the matter by the board.

Reports were received from a number of county officers.

WOODSIDE NOTES

A wedding is scheduled for Woodside during the holiday season, and a pile of new lumber marks the spot where the young couple will live. Miss Alvina Winkler will marry Harry Williamson at Christmas time and a house is to be built for them at the Bonifant place, near the church on the highway.

Miss May Huddart, superintendent of the local Sunday school, is busily drilling her young charges in the parts they are to take in the Christmas entertainment. This is an event looked forward to for many weeks by the youngsters of the village.

W. B. Dale has given up his store in the Johnson building and returned to Menlo.

The telephone company has had a crew of men working for the past two weeks rebuilding the telephone lines to Woodside, preparatory to an improved service in this vicinity. We shall be properly thankful for this Christmas gift from the telephone company, for in the past it has often been extremely difficult to get a message over the wires.

Mrs. A. D. Meyers is organizing a Christian Endeavor Society at Woodside. Fourteen girls met with her on Wednesday last for the first meeting of the organization.

This will be the first time in many seasons that Charles T. Bradley has not spent a part of the winter months in building a new boat for his resort at Lake Tahoe. He says he is afraid to build any more boats lest the lake become so crowded as to spoil the pleasure of boating.

Mrs. Harold Allen and daughter, formerly residents of Woodside, are spending several weeks with Mrs. Joseph L. Ross, Jr., at her winter home in Palo Alto.

Mortimer Fleishacker and family visited their home here on Sunday last.

Our hopes of being transformed into a harmonious community have been dashed for the present. Miss Jane Cummins who opened a studio here for the purpose of bringing harmony to us, has closed her offices in the J. J. Kelly home and returned to Berkeley.

The girls of the Woodside school have organized two soccer teams and are looking for an opportunity to display their prowess in competition.

William Russell Wilson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson, died at the hospital on Saturday last and was buried at the Redwood City cemetery on Monday.
